Terms & Conditions

We apply for membership in Credit Managers Association of California, a California corporation, doing business as Credit Management Association and in Credit Executives Educational Foundation (CEEF), a California corporation and agree to abide by said corporations' Articles, Bylaws and Resolutions of their respective Boards of Directors, now in effect or hereafter made, in so far as they relate to the members of said corporations. Said membership shall become effective when accepted and approved, and each shall be for a period of one (1) year to be renewed automatically thereafter from year to year, at the prevailing prices, including any subsequent price changes, subject to termination by either party with thirty days prior written notice.

We acknowledge receiving information describing the services to which we have subscribed and current price schedules. We further acknowledge that there are no promises, warranties, representations or agreements regarding our membership in said corporations other than those referred to here and in referenced materials. We also understand that there are no refunds, including fees for unused services.

We understand that certain services may require service related contracts. CMA may, in cases of non-payment, send the account to collection, report our payment history to business credit reporting agencies and/or cancel this agreement at any time.

Terms for membership dues require payment with contract, all others due upon receipt of invoice. We hereby certify that the information provided is accurate. The undersigned is authorized to execute this agreement.
